

ATTORNEYS IN THE SOLOMON ISLANDS

The U.S. Embassy in Port Moresby, Papua New Guinea, assumes no responsibility or liability for the professional ability or reputation of, or the quality of services provided by, the following persons or firms. Inclusion on this list is in no way an endorsement by the Department of State or the U.S. Embassy or Consular agency. Names are listed alphabetically, and the order in which they appear has no other significance. The information in the list on professional credentials, areas of expertise and language ability are provided directly by the lawyers.

You may receive additional information about the individuals by contacting the local bar association (or its equivalent) or the local licensing authorities.

For information regarding attorneys not listed below, contact the Law Society known as the Bar Association. Mr. Frank Kabui, the chairperson, can be reached by phone at (677) 38776, by Fax (677) 38760, by Private line (677)38776 or by Email: chairman@lrc.gov.sb.

The following guidelines may be helpful:

Contacts several attorneys, briefly describe the nature of the services you desire, and find out the attorney's qualifications and experience. Ask for a written schedule of fees charged for the services you need. Do not turn over documents or funds until you are certain the attorney understands your legal needs and will handle your case.

If you cannot afford an attorney, the Public Solicitor, Mr. Douglas Hou may be able to assist you. He can be contacted at telephone number (677) 22348, and Fax (677) 28409, or e-mail: dhoul@psol.gov.sb

When dealing with your attorney find out how the attorney plans to represent you. Ask specific questions and expect the attorney to explain the legal process and the legal activities planned on your behalf, in a language you understand. Have your attorney analyze your case and give you the positive and negative aspects and probable outcome. Tell the attorney every relevant fact needed to represent your interests.

Ask your attorney to keep you advised of the progress on your case according to a pre-established schedule. Request copies of all letters and documents prepared on your behalf.

To obtain an attorney in the United States or in another country, check The Lawyer's List website on www.thelawyerslist.net or at Text-Only Guide to Martindale-Hubbell's site at www.martindale.com.
